LEWIS CHORLEY. (T. B. Peterson, Philadelphia, in press), and will issue, ready for sale, on Saturday, May 31st, a new book of the above name. Mrs. Caroline Lee Hentz. She has written the "best books in the language—such as the new "Lindwood," "Courtship and Marriage," "Hundreds of our readers will hail with pleasure the appearance of another volume from her pen. It will be ready for sale by the 31st of May."

The History of the World.
This work has excellent compilation; the facts are well told; the style is simple, easy, and readable; and the information concise and valuable. It is a universal storehouse of historical facts, chronologically arranged, and brought down to the present time. To the historical student, as well as all general readers, the work is invaluable as a constant reference, if only for its accurate and complete dates; and it forms an indispensable adjunct to all libraries. It is recommended

Proceedings of the Democratic Convention of the Eighth Judicial District.

The Democratic and anti-Know-Nothing of the Eighth Judicial District, composed of the counties of Franklin, Henry, Owen, Trimble, Carroll, Lincoln, Green, Boone, met in general Convention at the town of Owenton, on Thursday the 8th day of May, 1856. The Convention assembled in one of the churches at about 11 o'clock, and was called to order by Morgan B. Coile, of Owen, where, on the 9th day of May, 1856, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved, That the following be elected Chairman, and Morgan B. Pearce, of Henry, Secretary. Al-

Chairman had stated the object of the meeting was to have a general conference, and the following delegations were reported as present to-wit:

FRANKLIN COUNTY.—Jephtha Dudley, Ben. Crockett, W. B. Hawkes, J. H. Crockett, J. L. Gibbons, S. I. M. Major, and N. H. Grogan.

OWEN COUNTY.—M. E. B. Chinn, H. H. Gales, J. W. Walker, R. B. Gales, J. C. Stewart, A. P. Grover, G. W. W. Hammons, and J. H. Johnson.

JEFFERSON COUNTY.—Washington Perry, L. H. Henshaw, F. S. Long, David Barrod, Hugh G. Allen, C. A. Allen, Ben. Sulby, Morgan B. Pearce, C. E. Cithering, and John James.

CLATSOP COUNTY.—J. M. McLean, F. M. Seechurn, A. Dunlap, J. W. Thomas, T. J. McInnis, Seechurn, Charles J. Seechurn, and O. F. Hog.

CASCADE COUNTY.—Joel Williams, Silas Williams, George S. Smith, Samuel Williams, J. P. Adeock, William Montfort, Wm. Cox, G. G. Gager, J. Demain, Ben. Guillen, and Berry Cox.

CLATSOP COUNTY.—J. M. McLean, F. M. Seechurn, W. Sanders, A. B. Chambers, Dr. B. B. B.

C. Castleman, Mr. Montgomery, John T. Hinson, Mr. Harper, Wm. Finney, Mr. Hawkins and T. J. Finley.

TRIMBLE COUNTY.—Abraham Files.

By request, the Chairman appointed the following Committee, consisting of one delegate from each township, to prepare resolutions for the consideration of the Convention:

Charles H. Allen,	of	Henry
S. I. M. Major,	"	Franklin
S. F. Hogan,	"	Grant
Wm. H. Hume,	"	Owen
John T. Robinson,	"	Gallatin
Abraham Files,	"	Trimble
Berry Cox,	"	Carroll

John T. Robinson, Esq., of Gallatin, is the delegate from that County.

That the Chairman appoint a committee, composed of one delegate from each county, to receive applications for organization and the vote of their respective electors.

were delegates for the candidates for Judge Commonwealth's Attorney, to this Convention its afternoon session. Messrs. C. H. Allen, Ben Selby, of Henry, and others opposed adoption of the resolution, and Mr. Robinson planned and defended it—pending which died.
 S. I. M. Major, of Franklin, moved as a substitute for Mr. Robinson's motion the adoption of son's Rule, as a proper basis of representation the Convention. Mr. Major explained his motion, disclaiming any intention to restrict for against any aspirant for a nomination and by obtaining the relative vote of each under Mason's Rule, allowing one vote for hundred Democratic votes and one for over fifty, as exhibited in the following made up from the returns of the last State

Counties.	Morehead.	Clarke.
Franklin - - -	945	794
Boone - - -	805	944
Owen - - -	978	1,086
Grant - - -	738	541

Gallatin - - -	457	438
Carroll - - -	450	290
Gallatin - - -	918	673
	5,158	5,570

A vote was taken upon the substitute offered by Mr. Major, and it was adopted. The Convention then adjourned to meet again at 1½ o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention re-assembled at the appointed place. Before any vote was taken for the nomination

Mr. Duvall, of Owen, on the part of the Convention, withdrew the name of that gentleman from the consideration of the Convention as a candidate for Judge, stating that his object was to bring the Convention to a vote on the question of the propriety of admitting a candidate in the approaching canvass; whereupon E. F. Hall, of Henry county, was then unanimously proclaimed the candidate for Judge by acclamation. The announcement of Mr. Nuttall's nomination was then made, and the Convention, as a body, unanimously proclaimed the nomination of Mr. Nuttall, and Patrick U. Major, of Franklin, as the candidates for the office of Associate Judges of the Supreme Court, to wit: The Committee reported the following grand and excellent resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, to wit:

BALTIMORE & OHIO RAILROAD!
THIS GREAT WORK OF INTERnational improvement (195 miles from Wheeling to Washington, D. C.) was opened to the public on the Ohio river January, 1898.
It is the most modern, safe, rapid, and comfortable road approved, both as a freight and passenger line. This road is located in a romantic country, solidly constructed, fully equipped, and carefully managed, and is thus rendered an attractive as well as a safe line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio branch from Columbus to the Ohio river, near Wheeling, adds greatly to the importance of this route, offering, as it does, the most thorough Railroad connection between the Ohio river and Washington.
